Discover your passion in IT (DPIT)

Participant

2018 - 2019

I was involved in the development of an application within the DPIT contest. The participants formed teams of 6 people and a mentor, and they had to find an idea and develop an application within a partner company (my team worked with Accenture), for about 6 months. During all this time, in addition to developing the application, I saw what an IT company is like and how it works and I participated in many courses offered by them.
